

REPRESENTATIVE PROGRAMME

2020 KEY DATES & INFO

FOR PLAYERS AND PARENTS

(@ 26 February 2020, subject to change)

Eligibility

To be eligible to trial, players must:

- Be playing in a school or club team at Auckland Netball in the 2020 season and be a financially registered member of Auckland Netball via their team registration.
- Be the appropriate age or school year as applies to the team trialling for
- Either have identified Auckland Netball as their Primary Centre or have obtained a release from their Primary Centre prior to trials commencing
- Ensure that they are available for all training's, tournaments and events outlined below
- Disclose any planned absences known prior to trials to the Netball Development Manager prior to trials commencing
- Have the endorsement of a coach or sports coordinator from their school or club, who will receive an email copy of their completed registration

Registration for Representative Trials

The online registration form may take five-ten minutes to complete and requires a scanned copy or photo of the player's birth certificate or drivers licence to be uploaded. Unless contacted prior about any issues with the registration, the online registration will enable the player to take part in the first trial for the age-group identified.

After the close of online registrations, a full list of registered triallists will be sent via email to clubs and school. Late and on-the-day registrations will be only considered by request to the Netball Development Manager prior to the commencement of the first trial and are not guaranteed to be accepted.

Auckland Netball maintains very strict protocols around dispensations for any trial absence due to injury/illness and will request evidence for dispensation requests. No player is guaranteed a second trial and call-backs will be announced for second and third trials in accordance with the Auckland Netball Representative Age-Group Policies.

Please ensure the coach / sport coordinator phone and email contact details are correct when entering these in the registration form. When the coach / sport coordinator receives their copy of the application form no action is required unless they notice an error, disagree with information provided or do not believe the player should trial for the team identified for any reason.
